HUBO

125 YEARS & BEYOND

We are a group of Taytayenos traditionally performing dramatic presentation depicting the suffering of Jesus, death and resurrection in a unique Taytay way.

Founded in 1901, it's been 125 years and we still vow to unceasingly serve and worship the Lord with burning zeal to become worthy messengers of the Good News - "Simulang Walang Wakas".

Mission & Vision

Vision: To be a premier cultural and spiritual beacon in the community, preserving the sacred Filipino tradition of the Senakulo while inspiring contemporary audiences through high-quality theatrical evangelization

Mission:
Preserve: Keep the rich cultural heritage of the traditional Philippine Lenten passion play Senakulo alive for future generations.
Evangelize: Renew and strengthen the faith of the community by vividly portraying the life, passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.
Develop: Provide a creative platform for local youth and community members to develop their talents in acting, production, stagecraft, and leadership.

02

Mission & Vision

·Core Values

Devotion (Panata): We view our performances not merely as entertainment, but as a collective expression of faith and personal sacrifice.

Community Spirit (Bayanihan): We foster unity and collaboration among diverse members of the local community.

Excellence: We commit to continuous improvement in our artistic expression, technical execution, and script faithfulness.

03

Membership & Demographic Profile

- Total Active Members: 100 regular members (expands to 150+ during Holy Week production).

- Composition: Grassroots volunteers spanning all walks of life.
    - Cast Members: Students, tricycle drivers, local market vendors, housewives, sewers, carpenters, tiangge vendors, professionals and parish youth.
    - Age Range: Age 7 to 85 (passing down the panata across multiple generations).

- Core Principle: Inclusive entry. Members do not need professional acting experience; casting is determined by devotional commitment and character suitability.

04

Production Style & Performance Logistics

- Scripture Base: A combination of the traditional Pasyong Pilapil (written in quintilla with 5 lines each line has 8 syllables and rhyming verses) and modernized contextual adaptations based on the Bible and Apocrypha.
- Performance Schedule: Nightly performances from Holy Wednesday to Black Saturday, usually running for 3 to 4 hours per night at the Kalayaan Park. Is part of the Municipal Lenten Parade on Holy Wednesday
- Staging Style: Hybrid street-theater (Kalbaryo processional) and proscenium stage performance featuring traditional bastidores and telon-de-berga (hand-painted canvas backdrops). It maintains the traditional practice of pagdidikta (a designated prompter assisting actors with their lines).

05

Financial & Resource Profile

- Operational Budget: Estimated ₱100,000 – ₱200,000 annually (allocated for costumes, sound systems, lights, stage construction, and volunteer meals).
- Funding Mechanism:
  - Government Grants: Annual cultural preservation subsidy from the Local Government Unit (LGU) and Tourism Office.
  - Parish Support: Logistical, venue, and moral guidance provided by the local Catholic church.
  - Solicitations & Donations: Voluntary contributions from local community businesses, homeowners, and remittances sent by overseas Filipino workers (OFWs).
- Compensation: All organizers, directors, technical staff, and actors serve on a strictly voluntary basis without monetary compensation.
